

Tales and Trails

2-9 June, 2012

The Storyteller's
Garden

A Festival of Storywalks in the beautiful vale of Grasmere.

In Partnership with Butharlyp Howe Youth Hostel. Supported by Heritage Lottery Fund.

- Storywalks for all abilities
- Twilight Tales
- Jubilee Tales
- Family Days
- Storytelling Club

E info@taffythomas.co.uk T 01539 435641
W www.storytellersgarden.co.uk/talesandtrails

Day/Time	Detail
Saturday
2pm	Stories from the Storyteller's Garden and riverside walk, including 'The Catfishers of Grasmere'. Something for all abilities and ages.
8pm	Twilight Tales at Butharlyp Youth Hostel, including 'King of the Birds' story.
Sunday	'In the Steps of the Dragon', a storywalk of 2-3 hours to Grasmere Lake/Rydal Cave. Come and hear the story of 'The Dragon of Rydal Cave'. Return by bus or on foot.
Monday	All Day storywalk, Helm Crag ridge, Grasmere. Moderately strenuous fell walk - wear suitable clothing &amp; footwear, bring your own food &amp; drink. Come and hear the story of 'The King of the Birds' with storytellers Alex Aldridge, Ian Douglas and Simon Heywood. OR Family storywalk to Grasmere Lake. Come and hear the story of 'The Swans of Grasmere Lake' (About 1 1/2 hours).
Tuesday
11.00am	Jubilee Day Stories in the Storyteller's Garden - optional "royal" fancy dress.
7.30pm	South Lakes Storytelling Club, at The Watermill Inn, Ings.
Wed – Sat	National Families Week events with YHA 8pm each evening in the Storytellers Garden.

Suggested donation £5 Adults, £3 Children per event, or a larger donation for the entire festival, all at your discretion.

All storywalks begin from the Storytellers Garden, Grasmere. Reserve to book your place as numbers are limited.

For more information and bookings:

E info@taffythomas.co.uk T 01539 435641
W www.storytellersgarden.co.uk/talesandtrails